How We House Soldiers

The Garrison Commander is the approving authority to authorize bona fide single Soldiers (who would normally be required to reside in the barracks) to live off-post

Housing Division

What NOT to Ship if Unaccompanied

- Do not ship more than 1700 pounds for E1/E4, 2500 pounds for E5/E6, as it will not fit into a Barracks room and Gov funded storage will not be provided.
- Do not ship furniture (bed, dresser, couch), this will be provided for you.
- Do not ship any major appliances such as washers, dryers, or refrigerators.
- Do not ship Pets they are not permitted in any barracks or SBEQ/BOQ.

What to Ship if Unaccompanied

- Any items allowed in unaccompanied/household baggage:
bed linen, kitchen items such as cooking utensils, dishes, glasses and silverware, iron, ironing board, small appliances, floor care items, TV, radio/alarm clock, small audio/video electronics, fan, personal items, small sports items, etc.

Caution: Most barracks are wired for German 220 voltage. US appliances will not work unless the appliance is rated for dual voltage. The 110 appliances will only work with a transformer which is available at the PX or thrift store.
